Family Tree No. 4: Family of Forbes of Monymusk, Camphill, and Leslie, etc.

Monymusk Estate, ancestral home of Forbes of Monymusk
Sold in 1713 to Sir Francis Grant of Cullen

James, 2nd Lord Forbes, m. Lady Egidia Keith,
dau. of William, 1st Earl Marischal.

- William, Master of Forbes whence the Lords Forbes
- Duncan of Corsindae m. Christian Mercer
  - William of Corsindae m. Margaret Lumsden
    - James of Corsindae
    - 1. Duncan of Monymusk m. Agnes Gary Charter of lands, 1586, d. 1587
      - 2. William, 2nd of Monymusk m. Lady Mary Douglas, d. 1618
        - Duncan, an idiot
        - 3. William, created Baronet 1626 m. Elizabeth Wishart of Pitarrow d. 1628
          - 4. William, 2nd Baronet m. Jean Burnett of Leys d. 1654
            - m. Margaret Arbuthnott (1)
            - 5. John 3rd Baronet, d. 1702 d. 1654 (2)
              - m. Barbara Dalmahoy
              - 6. William, 4th Bart. (and others) m. Lady Jean Keith, b. 1661 d. before 1715. Sold Monymusk
                - John, m. Mary Forbes of Pitsligo died before his father
                - William, 5th Bart., an advocate and Professor of Civil Law, m. Christian Forbes of Upper Boyndlie, d. 1743
                - William, 6th Bart., Merchant and Banker, m. Elizabeth Hay
                - William, 7th Bart. m. Williamina Stuart
                - John, Lord Medwyn
                - George of West Coates
                - 6 other sons 7 other daughters
                - Sir John, 8th Bart.
                - Harriet Williamina m. 20th Lord Clinton
                - Lord Clinton present owner of Pitsligo
                - Charles Hay
                - William, 9th Bart.
                - Charles, 10th Bart.
                - Hugh, 11th Bart.
                - James David
        - John, 1st of Leslie See p. 311
        - James of Haughton
        - Alexander, o.s.p.
        - Robert of Cowlie, o.s.p.
        - Robert of Barnes
        - Alexander of Abersnithack
      - John of Camphill
      - Duncan of Lethenty
  - Patrick of Corse whence the Forbes of Craigivar, Granard, etc.