

NATIONAL TARTAN DAY CAPITOL CEREMONY

*Lower West Terrace of the U.S. Capitol
Thursday, April 6, 2000
Eleven o'clock*

Senate Majority Leader Trent Lott

Special thanks to the National Tartan Day Capitol Planning Committee: JoAnn Phipps, Barry Forbes, Susan Wells, Becky Daugherty, Susan Irby, Steven Wall, Ed Senn, Leslie Wallace, Al Ankrum, Terri Rinaldi and the U.S. Capitol Police; Alison Duncan, the St. Andrew's Society of Washington and Baltimore; and the U.S. Air Force Reserve Pipe Band.

Prelude	U.S. Air Force Reserve Pipe Band
Processional	The Scottish American Military Society Color Guard and The St. Andrew's Society of Baltimore Escort to the Colors
Welcome	Dr. Lloyd Ogilvie, Senate Chaplain
Scotland the Brave	U.S. Air Force Reserve Pipe Band
Greetings from the Scottish Parliament	The Honorable George Reid, Deputy Presiding Officer of the Scottish Parliament
Senate Resolution 155	The Honorable Wayne Allard, U.S. Senator, CO
Remembrance and Influence of the Declaration of Arbroath	Mr. Duncan Bruce, Author of Mark of the Scots
Amazing Grace	Wintley Phipps
Presentation of the Wallace Award	Mr. Alan L. Bain, President, American Scottish Foundation
Acceptance Remarks	The Honorable Trent Lott, U.S. Senator, MS
Introduction of the Moderator	His Excellency Sir Christopher Meyer, The British Ambassador
Remarks	Rt. Rev. John Cairns, The Moderator of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland
National Anthem	U.S. Air Force Reserve Pipe Band soloist, Staff Sergeant Janis Thrift
Benediction	Dr. Lloyd Ogilvie